

BUILDING RESILIENCE FOR FOOD & NUTRITION SECURITY

Resilience Quiz Answers

What is the earliest known use of the concept of resilience?

- a) Ship building
- b) Printing press
- c) Aerospace engineering
- d) Agricultural innovation labs

Which of the following fields does NOT use the concept of resilience?

- a) Civil and mechanical engineering
- b) Statistics
- c) Psychology
- d) Ecology

Many people consider him to be the father of resilience:

- a) Albert Bandura
- b) Burt Rutan
- c) Norman Borlaug
- d) C.S. "Buzz" Holling

If global temperatures rise by 2.2°C–3.2°C, as expected if high greenhouse gas emissions continue, what is the projected decline of global wheat and maize yields over 2000-2050?

- a) 1.5 to 5.4 percent decline
- b) 7 to 10 percent decline
- c) 12 to 13 percent decline
- d) 14 to 34 percent decline

True or False: Globally, the number of category 4 and 5 hurricanes, the strongest types, remained constant between the 1970s and the first decade of this century

- a) True
- b) False (their frequency has doubled)

After experiencing a civil war, how long on average does it take a country to return to pre-war levels of economic growth?

- a) 2 years
- b) 9 years
- c) 14 years
- d) 22 years

BUILDING RESILIENCE FOR FOOD & NUTRITION SECURITY

Children born in fragile and conflict-affected countries are _____ as likely to be undernourished as those born in countries unaffected by conflict.

- a) Half
- b) Equally
- c) Twice
- d) Three times

What is weather-index insurance?

- a) Farmers get compensation according to a publicly observed value of a particular weather variable (for example, if a certain threshold of rain is exceeded)
- b) Farmers get compensation based on a predicted/expected value of a weather variable
- c) Farmers are eligible to purchase insurance only once inclement weather hits
- d) Farmers buy insurance for their whole community on a seasonal basis

In 2012, on average, how many people became refugees due to conflict or persecution every day?

- a) 500
- b) 1,000
- c) 1,500
- d) 3,000

True or False: The frequency of earthquakes has increased since recordkeeping began.

- a) True
- b) False (their frequency has seemingly remained constant)

True or False: Global cereal stocks have been on the rise, with 2013–2014 stocks forecast to reach their highest value in more than 10 years.

- a) True
- b) False

In 2011, critical drought conditions across much of eastern China impacted the food security of an estimated how many people?

- a) 1 billion
- b) 35 million
- c) 10 million
- d) 2 million

What is the primary cause of foodborne diseases?

- a) Rising temperatures
- b) Low food prices
- c) Genetic predisposition
- d) Zoonotic agents